INTRODUCTION

In September 2007, I began service as the sixth President of the Buhl Foundation in its 80 year history. Since its inception in 1929, the Buhl Foundation has been ably guided by dedicated leaders with a deep commitment to improving the quality of life in the Pittsburgh region. As a lifelong resident, and as one with a deep love of Pittsburgh, I consider it both a challenge and an honor to continue that proud Buhl legacy.

As with any change in leadership, our organization has taken advantage of the opportunity to renew and refresh itself, to analyze how best to respond to the ever-changing tide of community needs. To that end, over the past twenty months, we have:

- Met with hundreds of Western Pennsylvanians to better understand this community and how we might impact it;
- Undergone a strategic planning process to ensure that we are in harmony with the vision of Henry Buhl, Jr., a vision centered on “the well-being of the citizens of the City of Pittsburgh, and the County of Allegheny”;
- Evaluated and refined our granting priorities to further the Buhl mission;
- Reconsidered, organized and documented our internal and external operating procedures to maximize efficiencies;
- Rebuilt our website in order to better articulate our mission, our objectives, our values and our granting practices and procedures.

These undertakings have been time consuming and have generated lively discussion but we will look back on this process with a better idea of who we are and how we can better address the challenges of the future.

As Pittsburgh’s oldest multi-purpose foundation, we are excited about this new opportunity to be fresh yet grounded in our past. We also seek to ensure transparency and responsiveness in order that the public knows what we do and why we do it. To that end, as part of our reorganization, we will begin providing access to our annual report as a regular feature on our website instead of our historic practice of distributing it by mail. We believe this web publication improves accessibility and accountability while, importantly, saving trees and costs. Moving forward, we intend to publish our annual report on the website each Fall, beginning this Fall of 2009, after the close out of our June 30 ending fiscal year and the completion of our regular annual audit.

As always, this annual report shares the partnerships we have entered into with the community and provides financial accounting of how we have carried out our fiduciary responsibilities to Mr. Buhl, our family of funds, and the community.

The Board and staff of the Buhl Foundation look forward with hope and backward with gratitude to this region and to all those who have worked with us for the well-being of our neighbors – regardless of position or standing – in fulfillment of Mr. Buhl’s vision for a better Pittsburgh.

Frederick W. Thieman
President
MISSION

It is the mission of the Buhl Foundation to create community legacies by leveraging its resources to encourage people and organizations to dream, to innovate and to take action.

OBJECTIVES

Henry Buhl, Jr. built his fortune in the retail industry and created the Buhl Foundation, the first multi-purpose foundation in Pittsburgh, as a memorial to his beloved wife, Louise C. Buhl. Mr. Buhl directed the Foundation to be especially concerned with the “well-being of the citizens of the City of Pittsburgh, and the County of Allegheny.” Remembering that Henry Buhl, Jr. lived and worked on the North Side of Pittsburgh, and knowing his love for Pittsburgh and its people, the Buhl Foundation is particularly sensitive to four major areas:

- Education - Initiatives that foster learning environments critical to building a knowledgeable and talented population
- Youth Development - Projects that provide opportunities for our young people to thrive, to be safe and to live in a nurturing environment
- Human Services - Strategies where our resources make a difference in addressing persistent community challenges or unmet needs of at-risk neighborhoods
- Economic and Community Development - Efforts that encourage innovation and entrepreneurial solutions to improve quality of life

GUIDING PRINCIPLES

The Buhl Foundation’s current aspirations are integrated into our long-standing mission, making it relevant to contemporary times.

* Dream *

- Because today’s dreams become the realities of tomorrow, Mr. Buhl hoped the Foundation would be curious, accessible, unencumbered in vision and purpose, and structurally capable of adaptability and usefulness. We welcome discussion of wide ranging ideas and opportunities to make a difference.

- To advance its mission, the Foundation must do more than simply make grants. Acknowledging the finiteness of our resources, we seek to be informed by the community in order to best leverage our efforts and to be an active participant in finding solutions. We appreciate the need to give of our time and energy to help make dreams happen.
Innovate

- With a history of funding creative endeavors for more than 80 years, the Foundation recognizes that any success is dependent on the vision and dedication of the many organizations that it is privileged to assist.

- The foundation has been fortunate that great ideas and the leaders to implement them have emerged. We seek to partner with such leaders to stimulate and strengthen our community’s ability to survive, adapt and thrive in a fast changing world. Our resources are focused on inventive and entrepreneurial solutions to expand tomorrow’s possibilities.

Act

- The Foundation is often the first funder of a new idea, willing to venture when the possible benefits outweigh the attendant risks. We look for opportunities where a small amount of money wisely invested can lead to strategic action and improvements.

- In carrying out its mission the Foundation tries to find the balance between visibility and self-effacement; leadership and enablement.
GRANTS

July 1, 2007 - June 30, 2008

AREAS OF GIVING

Buhl’s giving is focused in Southwestern Pennsylvania with an emphasis on Allegheny County and, in particular, upon the City of Pittsburgh and its North Side. The Foundation looks to find opportunities that best leverage our dollars and contribute to the sustainability and vitality of the community. We carry out the mission, objectives and guiding principles of the Foundation by focusing on the following areas of giving:

- Education – Initiatives that foster learning environments critical to building a knowledgeable and talented population.

  Education has always been a cornerstone of our giving. Over the course of the Foundation’s existence, our educational giving has adapted to the changing needs of our community. Most recently, the Foundation’s education giving has been directed primarily for the benefit of K-12 public schools with the goal that students graduate prepared to meet the challenges of the 21st century. Current areas of interest include initiatives that improve quality of instruction, advance the professional development of teachers, develop effective curriculum with a particular emphasis on science and math, integrate arts and culture into curriculum in partnership with community groups, support environments in which youth can learn, encourage community and higher education partnerships that further science, technology, engineering or math education (STEM), and intermediary organizations that improve school quality, governance, leadership and accountability.

  In its earliest years, the Foundation invested heavily in academic research and, at various times in its history, has endowed professional chairs at Carnegie Mellon University, the University of Pittsburgh, Allegheny College and Carnegie Science Center. Later, during the period from 1930 to 1970, prior to widespread institutional or government funded scholarship programs, the Foundation provided more than one thousand scholarships to aspiring students. In the advent of the computer age, the Foundation invested heavily in library technology and university distance learning centers.

- Youth Development – Projects that provide opportunities for our young people to thrive, to be safe and to live in a nurturing environment.

  The Pittsburgh region that Mr. Buhl loved will thrive when young people are able to learn and to assume the responsibilities of civic participation and leadership. The Buhl Foundation looks for initiatives, particularly in disadvantaged communities, that support young people in out-of-school time activities that develop leadership, enhance learning, encourage community service, provide recreational enjoyment or prevent violence.

- Human Services – Strategies where our resources make a difference in addressing persistent community challenges or unmet needs of at-risk neighborhoods.

  The Foundation funds efforts that support a thriving and diverse community, encourage citizen volunteers or improve access to services. Support is also provided for special projects that improve the effectiveness of such organizations to reach out and meet these human service needs.

- Economic and Community Development – Efforts that encourage innovation and entrepreneurial solutions to improve the quality of life.

Preference is given to undertakings that support Downtown and North Side revitalization, enhance neighborhood vitality, or encourage use of our parks and recreational opportunities.

Henry C. Frick Educational Fund
Grants are made from the Frick Fund with special concern for strengthening K-12 public school education. A sub fund of the Frick Fund, the Frick Teacher Alumnae Fund, supports efforts to improve the teaching profession and the effectiveness of teachers. These focus areas align well with the educational interests of the Buhl Foundation. Grant procedures for the Frick Fund are the same as the Buhl Foundation.

William and Elizabeth Rodger McCreery Memorial Fund
The McCreery Fund, established by Emilie McCreery in 1955, provides support for musically talented students residing in the Pittsburgh region to further their musical education or to enhance young people’s appreciation of music. Application processes are the same as to the Buhl Foundation.
FUNDING CONSIDERATIONS

A proposal should demonstrate the intersection of all or many of the following considerations which are important to the Buhl Foundation:

- Leadership in education, economic and civic improvement, human services and youth development

- Unique, innovative, timely and creative solutions to meeting community needs

- Collaboration with community partners

- Outreach to diverse populations, especially those who are economically disadvantaged or at-risk

- Preventive solutions that are enduring

The greatest volume of Buhl grants, both in total dollars and in number of proposals funded, fall in the range of $2,500 to $25,000. Buhl’s largest grants tend to focus on sustaining regional institutions that play a unique role in our community based on historic relationships with the Foundation and its mission.

The Henry C. Frick Educational Fund supports K-12 public school initiatives and the McCreery Fund focuses on programs that encourage musically gifted and interested students. Grant requests to both follow the same mission, guidelines and procedures as the Buhl Foundation.
GRANT PROCEDURES

A written letter of inquiry, not to exceed three pages, should be sent to the President, to be followed by a formal proposal meeting Buhl guidelines, if invited. Electronic inquiries are not accepted.

Staff meets regularly to review letters of inquiry and either a phone call or a letter regarding the inquiry should be expected within 6 weeks, if not sooner. If taken under consideration, an inquiry may be acted upon immediately followed by a request for a proposal or it may be allowed to percolate over time so as to evaluate its potential impact in relation to other funding options in the face of limited resources. Staff will often meet with potential applicants to discuss feasibility and may work with prospective grantees to develop a proposal that appears to have potential for community impact consistent with Buhl’s giving priorities. Expression of interest in a proposal, or work with an applicant to assure best possible presentation, should not be construed as an indication of forthcoming grant approval.

If a proposal is invited, staff will work with the applicant to establish a specific time frame for submission of the proposal and consideration by the Board.

Interviews or site visits may be carried out by arrangement with the staff.

The Board of Directors of the Foundation usually meets six or seven times a year to act on grant proposals.

When a grant has been awarded, the grantee and Foundation agree upon a schedule for grant payments. A report on program achievements, including accounting for dollars spent, is required at the conclusion of the program.

All letters of inquiry and proposals are reported to the Board of Directors.
PROPOSAL GUIDELINES

A formal proposal when invited should include all of the following:

- Cover Sheet from the Common Grant Application Format (www.gwpa.org)
- Mission of organization
- Short, concise information about the organization
- Purpose of grant request
  - Amount requested/total project need
  - Program description/need/schedule of implementation
  - Audience/population served
  - Impact
  - Evaluation
  - Collaborative partners
- Financials
  - Income/expenditure current year and forecast
  - Budget for project
  - Other funders
  - Most recent audited financials
- Leadership/Board of Directors
- IRS Determination Letter

Applicants may also use the Common Grant Application Form available from Grantmakers of Western Pennsylvania at www.gwpa.org.

Proposals are limited to 10 typewritten, double spaced pages. The cover sheet, director lists, evidence of tax status and financial documentation can be attachments and are not included in the ten page limitation.

Independent Auditor's Report

Board of Directors
The Buhl Foundation

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial position of The Buhl Foundation (Foundation) as of June 30, 2008, and the related statements of activities and cash flows for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Foundation’s management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. The financial statements of the Foundation as of and for the year ended June 30, 2007 were audited by other auditors whose report, dated October 9, 2007, expressed an unqualified opinion on those statements.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Foundation as of June 30, 2008 and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

1. Organization

The Buhl Foundation (Foundation) was established in 1927 by the will of Henry Buhl, Jr. The Henry C. Frick Educational Fund and the William and Elizabeth Rodgers McCreery Memorial Fund are operated as separate funds within the Foundation. The Foundation is governed by a Board of Director consisting of four voting members. Appropriations are authorized by the Board of Directors (Board) of the Foundation to tax-exempt, nonprofit institutions for charitable, educational, and public uses and purposes for specific programs.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

   Investments and Related Income

Investments are reported at fair values in the statements of financial position and changes in the fair values of such investments are included in net unrealized gain on investments in the statements of activities. Realized gains or losses on these investments, if any, are reported separately in the statements of activities. Purchases and sales of investments are recorded on their trade date. Interest and dividends from investment securities are recorded when received. This investment income would not have a significant effect on the financial statements if it were to be recorded on the accrual basis. Distributions from private equity funds are recognized as income to the extent of the Foundation’s share of undistributed income of such private equity funds. Management fees paid to private equity funds are included in partnership net gains/losses in the accompanying statements of activities.

The fair values of program-related investments approximate their cost. The fair values of common stocks, mutual funds, U.S. Treasury bonds, other U.S. government and agency obligations, and corporate and municipal bonds are based on their quoted market prices. The fair values of these investments are subject to changes in market conditions, and as such, future fair values may differ significantly from those reported on the financial statements. The fair values of hedge funds and private equity funds are estimated in good faith by management due to the absence of quoted fair values. These estimates of fair values are made by (a) considering general factors such as financial information relating to the investments and the industry and economic environment in which the investees operate and (b) using valuation techniques considered relevant to the particular investment, including methods based on cost, net cash invested, discounted cash flows, appraisals, or the Foundation’s proportionate share of the overall value of the investee provided by the general partners. However, because of the inherent uncertainty of valuation, those estimated fair values might differ significantly from the values that would have been used had a ready market for those investments existed. In addition, each partnership specifies the terms by which an investor may liquidate its holdings.
As such, certain partnership investments may not be readily liquidated and are, thus, of a more long-term nature. In addition, redemption of the Foundation's investments in hedge funds and private equity funds may require liquidation of the underlying partnership investments.

Investments considered to be permanently impaired in value are written down to their estimated value and the write-down is recorded as a realized loss on investments. Realized gains and losses on disposals of investments are determined by the specific identification method, except for mutual funds and certain equity investments for which the cost of shares sold is determined by the average cost method.

The Foundation's investments are exposed to various risks, including interest rate, currency, market, and credit. Due to these risks and the level of uncertainty related to changes in the value of individual investments, it is at least reasonably possible that significant changes can occur in fair value that may materially affect the amounts reported in the financial statements. Due to exceptional market volatility since June 30, 2008, as of October 31, 2008, the investment portfolio had fallen to approximately $69,200,000. The Foundation remains committed to its investment strategy.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Foundation considers all highly liquid debt instruments with original maturities of three months or less to be cash equivalents. The Foundation maintains its cash in bank accounts which, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. The Foundation does not believe it is exposed to any significant credit risk related to cash and equivalents.

Office Furniture and Equipment

The Foundation carries office furniture and equipment at cost. Depreciation is provided over estimated useful lives on the straight-line method. Maintenance and repairs are expensed as incurred. Expenditures, which significantly increase asset values or extend useful lives, are capitalized. When an asset is sold or retired, the cost and related accumulated depreciation are eliminated from the accounts and any resulting gain or loss is recognized in income. Depreciation expense for the years ended June 30, 2008 and 2007 was $4,215 and $4,197, respectively.

Appropriations

The Foundation recognizes a liability and corresponding expense for unconditional appropriations in the amount expected to be paid when the Board approves appropriations. Such liabilities are not recorded at their present values using a discount rate commensurate with the risks included because the present value is not materially less than the amounts expected to be paid. Conditional grants approved by the Board are recorded when the conditions are met.

Investments

Purchased investments are carried at the current fair value. Donated investments are recorded at fair value on the date of donation and carried at current fair value. Gains and investment income are recognized in the period earned and are classified as unrestricted, temporarily restricted, or permanently restricted with respect to the stipulations established by the donor at the date of donation or applicable state law.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of income and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

FASB Statement No. 157, “Fair Value Measurements,” defines fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value in generally accepted accounting principles, and expands disclosures about fair value measurement. FASB Statement No. 159, “The Fair Value Option for Financial Assets and Financial Liabilities,” permits entities to measure many financial instruments and certain other items at fair value. Currently, these statements are effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007 (this would be fiscal year July 1, 2008 to June 30, 2009 for the Foundation), with the effective dates of FASB Statement No. 157 being delayed until fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2008 for non-financial assets and liabilities, except for the items that are recognized or disclosed at fair value in the financial statements on a reoccurring basis (at least annually). Implementation guidance is still being formulated by FASB and the AICPA, but significant impact to the financial statements of the Foundation is not currently anticipated. The Foundation is assessing the impact of the adoption of the FASB Statements 157 and 159 on its financial statements.

On August 6, 2008, the FASB issued FASB Staff Position (FSP) No. FAS 117-1, “Endowments of Not-for-Profit Organizations: Net Asset Classification of Funds Subject to an Enacted Version of the Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act, and
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
YEARS ENDED JUNE 30, 2008 AND 2007

Enhanced Disclosures for All Endowment Funds.” This FSP provides guidance on the net asset classification of donor-restricted endowment funds for a not-for-profit organization that is subject to an enacted version of the Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act of 2006 (UPMIFA). This FSP also requires certain disclosures about the Foundation’s endowment funds (both donor-restricted endowment funds and board-designated endowment funds), whether or not the Foundation is subject to UPMIFA. The FSP is effective for fiscal years ending after December 15, 2008. The Foundation is currently assessing the impact of the adoption of FSP No. FAS 117-1 on its financial statements.

Investments in the Vanguard Institutional Index Fund Institutional Shares and the Osterweis Fund, large capitalization mutual funds, and the Capital World Growth and Income Fund, a growth and income mutual fund, account for approximately 31.2% and 12.4%, respectively, of the fair value of the Foundation’s investments at June 30, 2008.

The Foundation invests in hedge funds to further diversify its investment portfolio through the following funds: Aurora Fund operated by Harris Associates and Lighthouse Diversified.
Fund operated by Butterfield Fund Services. Investments in the hedge funds are speculative and involve risk. Risks arise from changes in the value of these funds and the potential inability to liquidate all or a portion of them in a timely manner. There are numerous factors that may significantly influence the market value of these funds, including interest rate volatility. These factors were considered by the Foundation prior to making this investment and it was determined the investment would be beneficial to leverage risk in other areas of the investment portfolio.

The hedge funds are reported at market value at June 30, 2008. Market value is calculated as the net asset value of the funds, less the fund’s liabilities, including accrued fees and expenses. The share reported by the Foundation is proportionate to the Foundation’s relative capital contribution.

In addition, the Foundation invests in private equity funds that are also speculative and involve risks that would arise from changes in the value of these funds and the potential inability to liquidate all or a portion of them in a timely manner. Fair value of the private equity funds is determined by the fund manager, which generally represents the private equity fund’s proportionate share of the net assets of the investee funds as reported. This amount is equal to the sum of capital accounts in the investment entries determined in accordance with United States or substantially similar generally accepted accounting principles.

4. PROGRAM-RELATED INVESTMENTS

During the fiscal year 1996, the Foundation made a $250,000 commitment to the Strategic Investment Fund Partners (the Fund), a limited partnership between the Strategic Investment Fund, Inc. and the Allegheny Conference on Community Development. The purpose of the Fund is to provide private sector financing for projects that promote economic development and the creation of employment in the City of Pittsburgh and its environs. The Foundation disbursed the $250,000 in years prior to fiscal year 2005. During fiscal year 2002, the Foundation committed to an additional investment of $250,000 to allow the Fund to continue operation toward its mission. These funds were disbursed in years prior to fiscal year 2007. During fiscal year 2008, $100,370 was returned from the Fund. During fiscal years 2008 and 2007, $43,370 and $99,133, respectively, were returned from the Fund, of which the Foundation reinvested $43,370 and $99,000, respectively, in the Fund.

In fiscal year 1999, the Foundation approved a loan over ten years in the amount of $100,000 to Carnegie Mellon University, which was disbursed in full in fiscal year 1999. The principal amount of the loan and any unpaid interest was repaid in its entirety to the Foundation during 2008. The purpose of the loan was to enhance math achievement through advanced cognitive tutor technology.

The Foundation has also recorded cumulative partnership income in the amount of $54,773 and $6,701 through June 30, 2008 and 2007, respectively. As of June 30, 2008 and 2007, $506,198 and $606,568, respectively, were invested in the Fund by the Foundation.

6. TAXES

The Foundation is qualified as a private, non-operating foundation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and is exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. The Foundation is obligated to pay income taxes on its unrelated business income (as defined), if any. In addition to a federal excise tax on net investment income, private foundations are subject to tax on the amount by which their minimum investment return exceeds distributions.

The Foundation has not provided deferred excise or unrelated business income taxes in these financial statements with respect to tax effects on differences between the bases of assets and liabilities for financial reporting and tax purposes, due to the insignificance of such deferred taxes relative to the financial statements as a whole.

7. RETIREMENT PLANS

The Foundation sponsors a defined contribution pension plan covering all eligible employees. Contributions are based on a percentage of each participant’s compensation. Amounts charged to pension expense totaled $54,561 and $51,897 for the years ended June 30, 2008 and 2007, respectively.
The Foundation also sponsors a retirement plan under Section 403(b) of the Internal Revenue Code, which covers all eligible employees. The retirement plan is funded entirely with employee contributions.

8. Related Party Transactions

During 2008 and 2007, there were certain grant applicants with which Directors of the Foundation were affiliated. Pursuant to the practices of the Foundation, the related Directors abstained from voting in matters concerning affiliated applicants.
